Summer Youth Community Economic Development Leadership Internship: The North Carolina Community Development Initiative is offering an 8-week program to rising seniors interested in summer work with a local community development organization. There is no charge for the program, in fact, those students who are accepted into the program are PAID for their work! Application materials are in the counseling center: Deadline is May 14.

TEACHERS: Haywood County Schools will be rolling out a new email system on Monday, May 10. All staff will need to log in to the new system then. As of May 10, Thunderbird and the current webmail will no longer send or receive messages. On Friday, May 7, each staff member will report to the media center at the beginning of their planning period to receive instructions to begin using the new mail on Monday. An additional session will be offered after school one day for those interested in learning more about the system. Technology CEUs will be granted for completion of the sessions.

The Lion's Club is hosting Apollo Flame Night on Tuesday, May 11th from 5:00 – 7:30 in the cafeteria. We will be serving your choice of spaghetti or chicken parmesan. Cost of the dinner is $10.00 and proceeds go to fund two Leo Club scholarships. You can eat in or dine out. Buy your tickets from Cindy Smathers or Michael Allen.
