Day 18

There will be a mandatory meeting for Breakfast of Champion participants tomorrow morning at 7:30 in C2.

Any student interested in helping with See Ya At the Pole should see Mrs. Johnson in B9 by Wednesday afternoon.

Student Council's first mandatory meeting will be held in Mrs. Larsons room B8 Thursday from 3:00 – 3:45.

Any student interested in serving as a class officer MUST plan to attend a meeting after school Thursday at 3:00 in Mrs. Larsons room B8.

If you would be interested in possibly receiving $90,000 to attend UNC Charlotte, see your counselor about the Levine Scholarship as soon as possible. There are specific standards that must be met for the candidate to be successful, so don't delay.

Applications for ETSU's prestigious ROAN Scholarship are now available in guidance and are due back Monday, September 20.

Information on the UNC Chapel Hill Morehead-Cain Scholarship and the NC State Park Scholarship are now available in the guidance.

Any student interested in applying for the NC Teaching Fellows Scholarship should plan to attend a brief meeting after school in guidance this Wednesday. If you cannot attend or you have questions, please see Mrs. Heinz.

Athletes who excel in academics, athletics and student leadership should apply for the Wendy's High School Heisman Award. One male and one female from each high school are selected for a chance to attend the Heisman Memorial Trophy weekend festivities in New York City. Early entrants are assured of, at least, Wendy's Gift Cards. The deadline for application is approaching so see Mr. Blackburn in the Counseling Center as soon as possible for details.

The Exemption Test Review for Drivers Ed will be held in the cafeteria tomorrow and Wednesday. The test will then follow on Thursday. If you qualify for Drivers Ed, you can sign up for these dates in the guidance office.

Mexico will celebrate its 200th anniversary of independence from Spain this Thursday, September 16. The Spanish Club will have its first meeting that morning at 7:30 in D8. Old and new members join us for a fiesta of traditional Mexican foods. See Senora Acquaviva for more details.
