Day 59

Congratulations to our ROTC Unit!

40 ROTC Cadets traveled to TL Hanna High School in South Carolina to compete in a drill and field meet against 15 other 3A and 4A Units from South Carolina. Pisgah placed in 7 of 14 events and took 1st place overall in drill and for the first time in 10 years won the overall Grand Champion Trophy for two consecutive competitions.

Varsity and JV cheerleaders competed in the NCHSAA cheerleading competition in Raleigh over the weekend. JV placed 2nd out of 14 in the JV non-tumble division and the varsity placed 5th out of 14 in the large varsity non-tumble division.

Don't forget Seniors! If you would like help with a college application, sign up for College Application Day in the Counseling Center! Be sure to write down which period you would be able to come to the media center computer lab AND pick up important information as early as possible this week. This Friday, November 19, students will be able to apply online to colleges during the school day; all counselors will be available for assistance---but only if you sign up! All community colleges in North Carolina offer free applications and MANY private four-year schools in North Carolina will be waiving their application fee this day only! See your counselor if you still have questions.

DECA competition practice will be this afternoon at 3:00 in Mrs. Craggs Office.

Leo Club meeting tomorrow morning at 7:45 in C-2.

Pisgah High School is collecting Shoeboxes in 1st Block for Operation Christmas Child. Please bring in shoeboxes with both boys and girls items and include a letter wishing the child a Merry Christmas. This is the official collection week, so we need to get those into 1st Block by Friday.

There will be a PAW Club meeting this Wednesday, November 17 at 7:45 am in A2 Ms. Rosebooms Room.

Mens soccer team banquet will be Thursday, November 18 at 6:00 at Wild Wings.

There will be a Spanish Club meeting on Thursday, November 18 at 7:40 am in room D8. We will be discussing the Christmas Party as well as our Christmas project. Please remember to get your club t-shirt money to Mrs. Acquaviva, Mrs. Birthright or Miss Roseboom by Thursday, November 18th. The cost is $13.

FFA members please sign up on the bulletin board by Mrs. Harvey's shop for the Thanksgiving dinner and hoe-down that will be at 5:00 this evening in the cafeteria.
